Notes from Administration

Our school year is off to a great start. We are unlocking our potential daily. The students are following our school-wide expectations by putting Safety first, being Prepared to learn, knowing Everyone counts and always Showing respect. As the students work on these expectations they will be rewarded with Gator Bucks. The Gator Bucks can be spent in our Positive School Store that will be open one day per week beginning the week of September 10th.

It has been brought to our attention that many students are wearing smart watches and taking videos and pictures during school hours. Smart watches are allowed at this time but photography and videoing are strictly prohibited. Please talk with your child to ensure no disciplinary action is needed. Working together we will succeed!

Reading Strategies to Use at Home

You can provide reading opportunities and extra guidance at home by simply implementing the simple activities and tips you find on this page. They are sure to help your child with reading comprehension regardless of what skill level they are currently at. Equally important, they will help foster a love for reading. Here are four strategies and tips straight from the classroom that you can use at home.

1. Lay a strong foundation for reading success

Before reading a book about ocean life, for example, first talk to your child about how fish are different from mammals and have to live in a water environment. Preview the text to find unfamiliar words like “gills” and “vertebrate” and explain them before you start reading. Talk about the fish you may have seen in a pet store or at the beach. You can even go the extra mile and take your child to the local aquarium. Just trust that these steps will go a long way in comprehension development.

2. More reading time and less TV time

Studies show that children are exposed to a larger variety of words in children’s books that are read to them than from what they hear on prime time TV. That means anything you read to them will enlarge their vocabulary much more than the conversational dribble heard on television.

3. Let your child be the teacher

Most all children jump at the opportunity to play a little role reversal. As you and your child are reading, take turns coming up with questions, making predictions, and summarizing. You be the student and let your son or daughter be the teacher. Children love being able to say things like “Dad, tell me what you think will happen next!”

4. Keep it interesting and relevant

One of the most important things parents can do is to provide reading material that is interesting and relevant. Nothing turns a child off reading like boring content. If your reader is a young boy make sure he has access to scary stories, sports books, or science fiction. And if your girl likes those things as well, make sure she has them in addition to stories about animals, fairytales, and babysitting clubs.

Box Top News

First collection deadline for Box tops is October 26th. The class with the most Box Tops in each grade level will win a popsicle party and the classroom school wide that collects the most will win a traveling Box Top Gator Trophy for their classroom to display until the next collect date in February. Box Tops are not only found on food items but also on school/office supplies and household items. You can ask family, friends and neighbors to help collect. Thank you in advance for helping raise money for our school.
